The first thing this morning I went to the police station and got the police report. The Chief and I are becoming very accustomed to each other and this Friday morning ritual. He enjoys it a great deal. It is no longer the hateful thing it used to be for me to do.

police and after I finished the <sup>police and</sup> five log, I walked up Main Street -- East side of the street. John Langan stopped me and was full of praise for me and what I have done and am doing for the City. That made me feel very very good. He even offered to help with the maintenance of Memorial and Gravity Parks, both of which are his responsibility. The next time the grass needs to be cut, I shall get in touch with him and see if he is as good as his word. As I was talking with Langan, Dave Adams came by and asked me if he could talk with me. He was being very friendly and gave me a tour of his building, which he expects to complete by the end of July. I told him that we should have a tickertape parade for him for doing what he is doing to the former M+M building. He was pleased. Since he was talking about not being able to meet his completion deadline, I said to him: "Well, if you're in need of some short-term help, I know a guy who might be interested in working for you. I think you know him. He's John Butermark from Canaan Street." Dave Adams said to me that if John was interested, he had a job for him. Very good. I told Dave Adams that I would return later in the day with John. I went to the news office and typed the police report directly on
